

EMC Corporation
Corporate Political Contributions Disclosure Statement
for the Six Months Ended December 31, 2008

EMC Corporation is committed to participation in the political process in compliance with applicable Federal, state and local laws and reporting requirements. Our policies and procedures for political contributions made with corporate funds are set forth in the EMC Corporation Political Contributions Policy, which may be viewed at <http://www.emc.com/collateral/corporation/political-contributions-policy.pdf>.

For the six months ended December 31, 2008, EMC contributed $100,000 to each of the Republican National Convention and the Democratic National Convention. EMC did not make any other corporate political contributions to political entities organized and operating under 26 USC 527 of the Internal Revenue Code.
