The best learning happens when everyone feels safe.

Dell EMC and Pelco are jointly focused on improving today’s video surveillance technologies to meet the increasing safety demands of campus environments. From single-building complexes to multi-facility institutions, we are bringing to market differentiated offerings that address the security, budget and infrastructure challenges faced by educational institutions. Our solutions help ensure staff and student safety, deter violence and theft, minimize vandalism and costly repairs and easily investigate incidents and identify suspects.

EASY TO BUY, EASY TO DEPLOY BUNDLES

There is a growing need for cameras and the technology infrastructure to work together in new ways so our schools can solve the most difficult security challenges. Campuses are deploying more innovative surveillance solutions for improved incident response times.

Dell EMC and Pelco have created Surveillance Bundles that enable a more streamlined method to deploy surveillance solutions in a variety of environments. Each bundle is geared toward the campus size and needs. The solution includes a variety of Pelco IP cameras, software and video network recorders from Dell. The solution architecture leverages on-site recording and ties back to the District Office and includes remote management and 3rd party integration.
